🔍 Secrets of Himalayas

About Our COMPANY

Himalayan Oura is a sustainable lifestyle and wellness company inspired by the beauty of the High Himalayas, the Himalayan Peke, and mountain biodiversity. Founded by Gurvinder Singh, a professional mountaineer and software engineer, the company is dedicated to creating eco-conscious products while supporting communities. We promote women empowerment, oppose child labour, and run programs for village women and children to build a better future. Our products include aroma scented candles, perfumes, incense sticks, and hotel room toiletries, all crafted with a touch of Himalayan purity. With upcoming eco-friendly home décor projects, Himalayan Oura continues to blend nature, wellness, culture, and sustainability into everyday living.

Sustainability CONCEPTS

Himalayan Oura is a sustainable lifestyle brand inspired by the purity of nature and the biodiversity of the Himalayas. We are committed to creating eco-friendly products free from toxic chemicals and harmful ingredients, promoting a cleaner and healthier environment. Our collection includes premium hand-rolled and masala incense sticks, aroma products, and sustainable bamboo home décor items crafted with care and responsibility. Himalayan Oura actively supports women empowerment through community programs and skill development initiatives. We also organize regular tree plantation drives to give back to nature and encourage environmental awareness. Every Himalayan Oura product reflects sustainability, ethical craftsmanship, wellness, and respect for the planet.
